PSLE (June) Holiday Writing Camp - Set B

Boost your child's writing skills for PSLE this June Holiday

The June school holidays are a key checkpoint in your child's academic journey. It is the perfect time for parents to review whether your child is coping well with the increasing demands of PSLE composition writing. With the second half of the year becoming more challenging, this break offers a valuable opportunity to strengthen core writing skills, close learning gaps, and build confidence before moving into more advanced topics.

Without timely support, weak writing habits such as poor planning, underdeveloped story plot ideas, and limited elaboration can persist and hold your child back in the months ahead. WRITERS AT WORK PSLE (June) Holiday Writing Camp is a focused mid-year booster to help students strengthen their composition writing skills and get ready to ace prelim exams and PSLE.

This programme teaches upper primary students to unpack composition questions accurately, plan interesting story plots, and write to score, so they can approach composition writing strategically.

Our 5-Day PSLE (June) Holiday Writing Camp is designed for Primary 5 and Primary 6 students, with emphasis on:

- Interpreting PSLE-style composition questions accurately
- Strengthening composition planning and story plotting skills
- Improving structure, coherence, and writing mechanics
- Expanding a practical and effective composition phrases bank
- Applying proven composition writing strategies

Students will work through carefully developed PSLE writing materials (Set B), designed by WRITERS AT WORK's Curriculum Team to provide focused practice in key writing areas. Every lesson is conducted by trained teachers who provide step-by-step guidance to help students strengthen their writing skills for exams.

**Each holiday camp uses a different set of materials.*
